The Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies at Eastern Kentucky University is accepting applications for a 9 month, tenure track position. The successful candidate will have served as a superintendent and/or a district or building level administrator in a public school and have a terminal degree. The candidate may be required to teach in online or other distance modalities.

Required qualifications include an earned doctorate from a regionally accredited or internationally recognized institution. The successful candidate will have a demonstrated record of effective teaching at the College level and have experience working with local cooperatives and state regulatory agencies for a full time tenure track appointment. To be considered for the position, applicants must apply through EKU’s employment site at jobs.eku.edu (search posting # F00048P).

Eastern Kentucky University is a regional, coeducational, public institution of higher education offering general and liberal arts programs, pre-professional and professional training in education and various other fields at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Located in Richmond, Kentucky, Eastern has a distinguished record of more than a century of educational service to the Commonwealth. Situated near the heart of the Bluegrass Region of central Kentucky, an area consistently rated among the best places to relocate and raise a family, Richmond is served by a network of major highways that make Eastern easily accessible from all parts of Kentucky and surrounding states. For additional information on Eastern Kentucky University, please visit http://www.eku.edu/about.

Eastern Kentucky University is an EEO/AA institution that values diversity in its faculty, staff, and student body. In keeping with this commitment, the University welcomes applications from diverse candidates and candidates who support diversity.